MOVING ON...

We have begun the new year, and as I look back I can't help but feel appreciation for those people who have worked so hard to make the seasons of Advent, Christmas, and now Epiphany so memorable. Marilyn Miller and her Worship Committee gave the shape, and Donna Gladson and her décor team were exceptional in their ability to make visually stunning our sanctuary! So many others brought magic out of seemingly insurmountable odds... remembering the Christmas Dinner, the Cantata, the numerous ways in which we gifted those in our communities less fortunate than us, and a Christmas Eve pageant that fits every Christmas pageant story! Whose kids were those, anyway?!

My hope is that the real meaning of Christmas still holds for you, and that you have been able to come into this new year with a renewed sense of what God has done, and continues to do, for us!

And grateful thanks to so many of you who worked so hard this past year in remarkable ministries!

Of course now we look to 2011, and our Leadership Board at its retreat last weekend began shaping not only this year but looking to the next 5 year strategic plan which begins in 2012. Long range planning is how we embody best what God wants of us. It helps in visioning what the Gospel calls us to be, and it gives us achievable and measurable goals. Our moderator Gabe Spuckes selects the strategic planning team, and in many ways the congregation will be included in the process.

On a more personal note, I am humbled by the many ways you have cared for me this past year. The many cards and calls and comments over the months made dealing with cancer much easier. I am glad that is behind me. And this month I turned 65! The cards were merciful, and far nicer than the ones I got when I turned 50. One I remember from then said "Hey, Guy! Birthdays aren't always happy occasions, but make the most of it... Y'know, kinda like you do with your hair!"

So thanks for the love, the laughter, the caring, and traveling with me on the learning curve of life! Thanks to God it goes on!

See you in church,

Stanley D. Smith, Senior Pastor

COME WORSHIP WITH US

"Open Hearts - Open Minds - Open Arms"

February 6, 2011

10 a.m. in the Sanctuary

How do people of faith shine their lights in the darkness? Just as good food needs seasoning, how do Christians feed people both literally and spiritually? These are the questions that we are called to answer again and again in scripture. Again and again we must revisit the tough challenges put in front of us by the scriptures to reach out beyond ourselves.

Scripture: Isaiah 58:4-12 Psalm 112:1-9
1 Corinth. 2:1-12 Matthew 5:13-16

We invite you to come and worship, bring friends, sing and celebrate God's loving grace. Worship leadership includes Marc Harper, Alisa Mittelstaedt, Stan Smith, Olivia Updegrove, Dean Shepherd, Phil Chap, and others.

February 13, 2011

10 a.m. in the Sanctuary

We look to Jesus Christ to stand here among us, and to help us learn to live with each other... until we can listen and talk together toward understanding, can think together, can create together, play together, pray together, grow together and serve together. In the gospel text this morning we have the familiar "You have heard it said, but I say..." method.. and Jesus helps us to see how it is that we can live out of love, kindness and reconciliation.

Scripture: Deut. 30:15-20 Psalm 119:1-8
1 Corinth. 3:1-9 Matthew 5:21-37

We invite you to come and worship, bring friends, sing and celebrate God's loving grace. Worship leadership includes Hazel Stover, Suzanne Vaughn, Stan Smith, Olivia Updegrove, Dean Shepherd, Phil Chap, and others.

Staff Appreciation Thank You Notes

Dear Church Family: Your generosity and your many expressions of love are truly gifts of heart, and what I can offer as thanks does not even begin to reflect what gratitude I feel. The many thoughtful gifts over the holidays and the staff gift giving of January 16 are very much appreciated. Thank you for being an incredible congregation, and for being a gift each and every day in my life. With gratitude, Stan

Dear FCCO: There are not enough synonyms for the word "thanks" when it comes to the people in this church and the love they share with me, my family, and the entire staff. Thank you for all your gifts and appreciation. The prayers, cards, and support during my difficult time also leave me very grateful. So, THANK YOU, again. Olivia

Dear FCC Family: Not only do you bless me with the opportunity of sharing beautiful music with you, you also bless me with a generous staff gift for which I am truly thankful. I hope to share many more inspirational musical moments with you in 2011!!! Blessings, Dean

Thank you for the wonderful recognition as part of your staff. It is a privilege to serve you as your JYF Coordinator. I am so thankful for the love and support of our amazing church family that surrounds me. Dana

Dear FCCO Congregation: Just a quick note to express my gratitude for your financial gift to us staff. I know for me, working with your kids is one of my favorite times of the week. I deeply appreciate all of the support and encouragement you provide for me and your children, week after week. Please know that I feel deeply blessed to get to work here at FCCO, and your generosity is greatly appreciated! In heartfelt appreciation and gratitude, Jazmine

Outreach Happenings

Dear Church Family,
 The Stewardship & Finance Committee would like to thank all who contributed to the church in 2010. We ended up collecting 99% of our pledged giving for the year which was fantastic given the economic climate.

In addition, we tightened our belt on expenses so we ended up not dipping into our cash reserves. About 71% of our 2010 expenses went toward payroll, with the remaining 29% disbursed as shown in the chart.

May the Spirit guide us to a successful 2011!

The Christian Action and Outreach Committee is the outreach arm of the church. The committee engages in various outreach programs and projects, and raises money to support the churches, as well as allocating funds to local charities and to support Disciples of Christ projects.

SERVING IN THE CHURCH... Come sign up! Sunday, February 30th in the Courtyard!

Would you consider being a part of one of these committees? Most of them meet on the 2nd Monday of each month. They are each chaired by a member of the Leadership Board.

Care and Nurture: Provides a welcoming environment for fellowship by putting on receptions, arranging outings, and hosting events at the church i.e. Easter Sunday Reception, Mother's Day Recognition, Dads and Grads Reception, summer Concert on the Lawn, Chili Cook-Off, and Christmas Progressive Dinner.

Christian Education: Provides educational opportunities, including the Searchers Class on Sunday mornings using a variety of topics and people, and oversees the Worship and Wonder program for our children; honors teachers and graduates in worship, and connects campers and church members during camp and conference weeks.

Christian Action and Outreach: Decides which local charities to receive contributions; coordinates the collection of funds for special offerings; puts on projects for the needy; and collects "loose change" each Sunday for Mary's Kitchen, Laurel House, Beverly's House, CASA, Meals on Wheels, AIDS Service Foundation, Project Hope School, FCCO Stephen Ministry, The Sheepfold, Second Harvest Food Bank, and OC Rescue Mission.

Worship: Shapes our morning worship, decides the church décor and designs special services, including festival seasons of the year. In addition there is a Worship Planning Team that enhances and coordinates the scriptures and themes.

Membership: Welcomes visitors and new members; provides a new member get-together; provides name tags for members and regular attenders.

Stewardship and Finance: Reviews income and spending monthly to assure compliance with the budget; plans and executes annual Stewardship Campaign; coordinates and promotes giving within the guidelines of Bequests, Charitable Trusts, and Charitable Gift Annuities.

Buildings and Grounds: Cares for and monitors the buildings and grounds in order to recommend changes to enhance the church; sits on improvement committees i.e. the courtyard remodel; acquires bids for recommended improvements.

Communications: Maintains the church's website; coordinates public relations and publications, and deals with all public areas.

Memorials and Gifts: Reviews monetary needs and determines out of which fund monies should be spent; facilitates the Scholarship Program and all Memorials and Gifts designations.

Special Ministries

There are other ways to be involved in our church and its ministries...

Disciples Women: Our church women get together for lunch each month at noon. They also have 4 smaller groups that meet dealing with spiritual study and socializing. The meeting times vary according to members' needs.

Disciples Men: Our men meet after church two Sundays a month and make sandwiches for Mary's kitchen. They collect coats in the winter; they provide the annual Pancake Breakfast held on the Saturday before Easter.

Diaconate: The Diaconate prepares, serves, and cleans up each Sunday's communion service; as well, they provide a member to accompany an Elder at monthly Home Communion visits. The Diaconate service is a one to three year commitment. If you are interested in this ministry, speak with Diaconate Chair Suzanne Vaughne or Moderator Gabe Spuckes.

Sunday Night Together: This caring ministry provides meals for homeless and hungry people on the 4th Sunday of each month. This is a "hands-on" direct ministry that requires no training!

Music: FCCO has wonderful music opportunities. Our Minister of Music, Dean Shepard, invites you to share your musical talents. He directs the Chancel Choir and 2 Handbell Choirs, and arranges special instrumental pieces. Jazmine Harnishfeger directs the Youth and Children's Choir.

Bible Study: Small groups are offered for learning and support. You are welcome to join, or to offer your talents as a teacher. Speak with one of the pastors about this opportunity.

Tender Mercies Ministry: Provides food and receptions for persons or families experiencing loss or death. A hands-on caring ministry.

Amazin' Grays: Meets once a month for food, fellowship and learning. Coordinated by a team of volunteers.

Office Support: Assistance in the church office with newsletters, mailings, etc. Coordinated by Linda Smith, our Administrative Secretary.
